- 32.5 Members may also request or call and arrange to hold general meetings in accordance with the procedures and requirements set out in the Corporations Act.
- 32.6 The place at which a general meeting is held is taken to be:

- 32.6.1 if the general meeting is held at only one physical venue (whether or not it is also held using virtual meeting technology), that physical venue;
 - 32.6.2 if the general meeting is held at more than one physical venue (whether or not it is also held using virtual meeting technology), the main physical venue of the meeting as set out in the notice of the meeting; or
 - 32.6.3 if the meeting is held using virtual meeting technology only, the registered office of the Company.
- 32.7 The time at which a general meeting is held is taken to be the time at the place at which the general meeting is taken to be held in accordance with clause 32.6
- 32.8 If the Company holds a general meeting, it must give the Members entitled to attend the meeting as a whole, a reasonable opportunity to participate in the general meeting.

33. How to call meetings of shareholders

- 33.1 Except as permitted by the Corporations Act, general meetings must be called on at least the minimum number of days' notice required by the Corporations Act (which at the date this constitution is adopted by the Company is 28 days for listed entities) and otherwise in accordance with the procedures set out in the Corporations Act. However, unless prohibited by the Corporations Act, the Company may call on shorter notice:
- 33.1.1 an annual general meeting, if all the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the annual general meeting agree beforehand; and
 - 33.1.2 any other general meeting, if shareholders with at least 95% of the votes that may be cast at the meeting agree beforehand.
- 33.2 Notice of a meeting must be given to shareholders, directors, the auditor and, for such time as the Company is admitted to the official list of ASX, ASX.
- 33.3 A notice of a general meeting must:
- 33.3.1 set out:
 - (a) if there is only one location at which the Members who are entitled to physically attend the meeting may do so, the date, time and place for the meeting;
 - (b) if there are 2 or more locations at which the Members who are entitled to physically attend the meeting may do so, the date and time for the meeting at each location, and the main location for the meeting; and
 - (c) if virtual meeting technology is to be used in holding the meeting, sufficient information to allow the Members to participate in the meeting by means of the technology;

- 33.3.2 state the general nature of the meeting's business;
 - 33.3.3 if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting - set out an intention to propose the special resolution and state the resolution; and
 - 33.3.4 contain a statement setting out the following information:
 - (a) that the shareholder has the right to appoint a proxy;
 - (b) that the proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company;
 - (c) that a shareholder who is entitled to cast 2 or more votes may appoint 2 proxies and may specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise;
 - 33.3.5 if the Company is admitted to the official list of ASX, specify a place and may specify an electronic address, for the purposes of receipt of proxy appointments;
 - 33.3.6 if the Company is admitted to the official list of ASX, contain a proxy form in accordance with the Listing Rules;
 - 33.3.7 contain anything else required by the Corporations Act or, if the Company is admitted to the official list of ASX, the Listing Rules.
- 33.4 The business of an annual general meeting may include any of the following, even if not referred to in the notice of meeting:
- 33.4.1 the consideration of the annual financial report, Directors' report and auditor's report;
 - 33.4.2 the election of directors;
 - 33.4.3 the appointment of the auditor;
 - 33.4.4 the fixing of the auditor's remuneration.
- 33.5 Non-receipt of notice of a meeting, or failure to give proper notice of a meeting to a person entitled to receive it, does not invalidate anything done at the meeting if:
- 33.5.1 the failure was accidental;
 - 33.5.2 the person gives notice to the Company that the person waives proper notice or agrees to the thing done at the meeting; or
 - 33.5.3 the person attends the meeting and:
 - (a) does not object at the start of the meeting to the holding of the meeting; or
 - (b) if the notice omitted an item of business, does not object to the consideration of the business when it is presented to the meeting.

34. Membership at a specified time

The convenor of a general meeting may determine that all shares are taken, for the purposes of the meeting, to be held by the persons who held them at a specified time (not more than 48 hours before the meeting). The determination must be made before notice of the meeting is given. Particulars of the determination must be given in the notice of meeting.

35. Quorum

- 35.1 No business may be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the commencement of business.
- 35.2 A quorum of Members is two Members unless there are less than two Members, in which event a quorum is those Members.
- 35.3 In determining whether a quorum is present, the chairperson must count shareholders, proxies, attorneys, body corporate representatives and any other persons entitled to vote. However, if a shareholder has more than one proxy, attorney or body corporate representative, the chairperson must count only one of them. If an individual is attending both as a shareholder and as a proxy, attorney or body corporate representative, or in any other capacity, the chairperson must count them only once.
- 35.4 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting:
- 35.4.1 if the meeting was called on the request of shareholders or by shareholders, the meeting is dissolved;
- 35.4.2 any other meeting is adjourned to any day, time and place the Directors decide and the Directors may, subject to and in accordance with clauses 32.2 and 32.8 determine the time, physical venue or physical venues (if any) and virtual meeting technology (if any) for the adjourned general meeting and, if the Directors do not make such a determination, the adjourned general meeting will be held:
- (a) at the same time and place seven days after the meeting, or to another day, time and place determined by the Directors; and
- (b) at the same physical venue or physical venues (if any), and using the same virtual meeting technology (if any), as originally appointed for the general meeting.
- 35.5 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for an adjourned meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

36. Chairperson of general meetings

- 36.1 The chairperson of Directors is entitled to chair all meetings of shareholders.
- 36.2 If there is no chairperson of Directors, or if the chairperson is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the deputy chairperson of Directors may chair the meeting. If there is no deputy chairperson, or if the deputy chairperson is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or is unable or unwilling to act, the directors present must elect one of themselves to chair the meeting. If they do not do so, the shareholders present must elect a person to chair the meeting.

37. Regulation of meetings

The chairperson may regulate the meeting of shareholders in any way consistent with this constitution.

38. Postponement and adjournment

38.1 The Directors may:

38.1.1 cancel or postpone to another time (on the same or another date) any general meeting (including any general meeting that has previously been postponed or adjourned) before it has started, other than a general meeting requested or called by Members under clause 32.5 which may only be cancelled or postponed with the prior written consent of the persons who requisitioned or called the general meeting: and

38.1.2 change the physical venue or physical venues (if any) and virtual meeting technology (if any) for any general meeting (including any general meeting that has previously been postponed or adjourned) before it has started.

38.2 The chairperson may adjourn a meeting of shareholders to any day, time and place.

38.3 The chairperson must adjourn a meeting of shareholders if the shareholders present with a majority of votes at the meeting agree or direct the chairperson to do so. The chairperson may adjourn the meeting to any day, time and place.

38.4 When a meeting is adjourned, new notice of the resumed meeting must be given if the meeting is adjourned for more than a month.

38.5 Only unfinished business is to be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

38.6 In relation to any general meeting that is adjourned by the chair of the general meeting under clause 38.2 or 38.3, the chair of the general meeting may, subject to and in accordance with clauses 32.2 and 32.3, determine the time, physical venue or physical venues (if any) and virtual meeting technology (if any) for the postponed or adjourned general meeting (as applicable) and, if the chair of the general meeting does not make such a determination, the postponed or adjourned general meeting (as applicable) will be held:

38.6.1 at the same time as, and on the day that is seven days after the day, originally appointed for the general meeting; and

38.6.2 at the same physical venue or physical venues (if any), and using the same virtual meeting technology (if any), as originally appointed for the general meeting.

39. How shareholders make decisions at meetings

39.1 A meeting of shareholders makes a decision by passing a resolution. A resolution is passed if more than 50% of the votes cast by the shareholders entitled to vote are in favour of the resolution (unless the law requires a special resolution).

- 39.2 A special resolution is passed if:
- 39.2.1 the notice of the meeting sets out an intention to propose the special resolution and states the resolution;
 - 39.2.2 it is passed by at least 75% of the votes cast by shareholders entitled to vote on the resolution.

40. How voting is carried out

- 40.1 Unless a poll is properly requested or clause 40.4 applies, a resolution put to the vote at a meeting of shareholders must be decided on a show of hands.
- 40.2 If a poll is properly requested, the result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting.
- 40.3 A declaration by the chairperson that a resolution is passed, or passed by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minutes, are sufficient evidence of that fact, unless proved incorrect.
- 40.4 For so long as the Company is admitted to the official list of ASX, a resolution put to the vote at a general meeting must be decided on a poll (and not a show of hands) if the notice of the general meeting set out an intention to propose the resolution and stated the resolution.

41. Polls

- 41.1 A poll may be requested on any resolution.
- 41.2 A poll may be requested by:
- 41.2.1 at least 5 shareholders entitled to vote on the resolution;
 - 41.2.2 shareholders with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll; or
 - 41.2.3 the chairperson.
- 41.3 The poll may be requested:
- 41.3.1 before a vote is taken;
 - 41.3.2 before the voting results on a show of hands are declared; or
 - 41.3.3 immediately after the voting results on a show of hands are declared.
- 41.4 A request for a poll may be withdrawn.
- 41.5 A poll requested on a matter other than the election of a chairperson or the question of an adjournment must be taken when and how the chairperson directs.
- 41.6 A poll on the election of a chairperson or the question of an adjournment must be taken immediately.
- 41.7 A request for a poll does not prevent the meeting dealing with other business.

42. How many votes a shareholder has

- 42.1 Subject to the Listing Rules, this constitution and any special rights or restrictions attached to a share, at a meeting of shareholders:

- 42.1.1 on a show of hands, each shareholder present (in person, by proxy, attorney or representative) has one vote;
- 42.1.2 on a poll, each shareholder present (in person, by proxy, attorney or representative) has:
 - (a) one vote for each fully paid share they hold; and
 - (b) a fraction of a vote for each partly paid share they hold. The fraction must be equivalent to the proportion which the amount paid (not credited) is of the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited). Amounts paid in advance of a call are ignored.
- 42.2 The chairperson has a casting vote, if the chairperson has a personal deliberative vote.
- 42.3 If a share is held jointly and more than one shareholder votes the share, only the vote of the shareholder whose name appears first in the register of shareholders counts.
- 42.4 The parent or guardian of an infant shareholder may vote that infant's share, if the parent or guardian satisfies the Directors of the relationship or appointment before the meeting. If the infant's parent or guardian votes the share, the infant shareholder must not vote.
- 42.5 A person may vote a share if:
 - 42.5.1 the person is entitled to be registered as the holder of the share because of a Transmission Event; and
 - 42.5.2 the person satisfies the Directors of that entitlement before the meeting.

The shareholder must not vote a share if another person does so under this sub-clause.
- 42.6 A shareholder must not vote a share if:
 - 42.6.1 a call or other amount is presently payable in respect of the share;
 - 42.6.2 the shareholder is in breach of a Restriction Agreement in respect of the share; or
 - 42.6.3 the Listing Rules require the Company to disregard the shareholder's vote in respect of the share.
- 42.7 The chairperson or other person may disregard any vote by a shareholder who is not entitled to vote.

43. Challenging a right to vote

- 43.1 A challenge to a right to vote at a meeting of shareholders may only be made:
 - 43.1.1 before the meeting, to the Directors; or
 - 43.1.2 at the meeting, to the chairperson of the meeting.
- 43.2 The challenge must be decided by the Directors or the chairperson (as the case may be). The Directors' decision or the chairperson's decision is final.

44. Proxies, attorneys and representatives

44.1 A shareholder, who is entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders, may vote:

44.1.1 on a show of hands:

- (a) personally;
- (b) by one proxy;
- (c) by one attorney; or
- (d) if a body corporate, by its representative, or by one proxy or by one attorney;

44.1.2 on a poll:

- (a) personally;
- (b) by not more than 2 proxies;
- (c) by not more than 2 attorneys; or
- (d) if a body corporate, by its representative, or by not more than 2 proxies or by not more than 2 attorneys.

44.2 A proxy, attorney or representative need not be a shareholder of the Company.

44.3 A shareholder may appoint a proxy, attorney or representative for all or for particular meetings of shareholders.

44.4 An appointment of an attorney or representative must be in a form approved by the Directors.

44.5 An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is signed by the shareholder making the appointment and it contains the following information:

44.5.1 the shareholder's name and address;

44.5.2 the Company's name;

44.5.3 the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy;

44.5.4 the meetings at which the appointment may be used.

The Directors may decide to accept a proxy even if it contains only some of that information.

44.6 Unless otherwise specified in the appointment, the proxy, attorney or representative may:

44.6.1 agree to short notice for the meeting;

44.6.2 even if the appointment directs how to vote on a particular resolution:

- (a) vote on an amendment to the particular resolution, a motion not to put the particular resolution or any similar motion;
- (b) vote on a procedural motion, including a motion to elect the chairperson, to vacate the chair or adjourn the meeting;

44.6.3 speak at the meeting;

- 44.6.4 vote (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment);
 - 44.6.5 request or join in a request for a poll.
 - 44.7 If a person represents 2 or more shareholders, that person has only one vote on a show of hands.
 - 44.8 If a shareholder appoints 2 proxies or 2 attorneys in one instrument and both are present, on a show of hands only the first named proxy or attorney may vote.
 - 44.9 The appointment may specify the proportion or number of votes that the proxy or attorney may exercise. If the shareholder appoints 2 proxies or 2 attorneys and the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the shareholder's votes each proxy or attorney may exercise, on a poll each proxy or attorney may exercise half of the votes.
 - 44.10 A later appointment of a proxy or attorney revokes an earlier one if both appointments could not be validly exercised at the meeting.
 - 44.11 An appointment may specify the way a proxy or attorney is to vote on a particular resolution. A proxy may vote only as directed.
 - 44.12 An appointment of a proxy is effective only if the Company receives the appointment (and any authority under which the appointment was signed or certified copy of the authority) at least 48 hours before the meeting or resumed meeting, unless the Directors decide to reduce that time. The Company receives an appointment or authority when it is received at any of the following:
 - 44.12.1 the Company's registered office;
 - 44.12.2 a fax number at the Company's registered office;
 - 44.12.3 a place, fax number or electronic address specified for the purpose in the notice of meeting.
- These requirements also apply to an appointment of an attorney.
- 44.13 Unless the Company receives written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of a meeting, a vote by a proxy, attorney or representative is valid even if:
 - 44.13.1 there is a Transmission Event in respect of the shareholder;
 - 44.13.2 the appointment of the proxy, attorney or representative is revoked;
 - 44.13.3 the shareholder revokes the authority under which the proxy was appointed by a third party; or
 - 44.13.4 the shareholder becomes an externally-administered body corporate.
 - 44.14 A vote by a proxy or attorney is valid even if the shareholder transfers the share for which the appointment was given, if the transfer is not registered at the time of the meeting (or at any earlier time fixed by the Directors so that shareholders at that time are taken to be shareholders at the time of the meeting).
 - 44.15 A proxy or attorney may take part in a meeting of shareholders even if the appointor or representative is present. However, if the appointor or representative votes on a resolution, the proxy or attorney must not vote.

45. Proportional takeovers

- 45.1 If offers are made under a proportional takeover bid for securities of the Company:
- 45.1.1 the registration of a transfer giving effect to a takeover contract for the bid is prohibited unless and until a resolution (an approving resolution) to approve the bid is passed in accordance with this clause;
 - 45.1.2 a person (other than the bidder or an associate of the bidder) who, as at the end of the day on which the first offer under the bid was made, held bid class securities is entitled to vote on an approving resolution;
 - 45.1.3 the Directors may determine whether an approving resolution is voted on:
 - (a) at a meeting, convened and conducted by the Company, of the persons entitled to vote on the resolution; or
 - (b) by means of a postal ballot conducted by the Company in accordance with the procedure set out in this clause;
 - 45.1.4 an approving resolution that has been voted on is taken to have been passed if the proportion that the number of votes in favour of the resolution bears to the total number of votes on the resolution is greater than 50%, and otherwise is taken to have been rejected.
- 45.2 The provisions that apply to a general meeting of the Company apply, with such modifications as the Directors decide are necessary, to a meeting convened under this clause.
- 45.3 In a postal ballot:
- 45.3.1 the Company must send a notice of postal ballot and ballot paper, to all persons holding bid class securities, at least 14 days (or any shorter period the Directors decide) before the date specified for the close of the postal ballot (ballot closing date);
 - 45.3.2 non-receipt of a notice of postal ballot or ballot paper, or accidental failure to give a notice of postal ballot or ballot paper to a shareholder entitled to receive them, does not invalidate the postal ballot and any resolution passed under the postal ballot;
 - 45.3.3 the notice of postal ballot must contain the text of the proposed resolution and the ballot closing date, and may contain any other information the Directors consider appropriate;
 - 45.3.4 each ballot paper must specify the name of the shareholder entitled to vote;
 - 45.3.5 a postal ballot is only valid if the ballot paper is properly completed and:

- (a) if the shareholder is an individual, signed by the individual or a duly authorised attorney; or
 - (b) if the shareholder is a corporation, executed by the corporation in any way permitted by its constitution or the Corporations Act or by a duly authorised officer or duly authorised attorney;
- 45.3.6 a postal ballot is only valid if the Company receives the ballot paper (and any authority under which the ballot paper is signed or a certified copy of the authority) before the close of business on the ballot closing date at the registered office or share registry of the Company or any other place specified for that purpose in the notice of postal ballot;
- 45.3.7 a person may revoke a postal ballot vote by notice received by the Company before the close of business on the ballot closing date.

Part 6 – Directors

46. Number of directors

- 46.1 There must be at least 3 directors and at most 10 directors.
- 46.2 Subject to clause 46.1, the Company in general meeting may increase or reduce the number of Directors.

47. Appointment of directors

- 47.1 The first directors of the Company are the persons specified in the application for registration of the Company as directors.
- 47.2 The Directors may appoint a director. Unless the Director is the Managing Director and the Listing Rules do not require that Director to be subject to retirement, a Director appointed under this clause will hold office until the end of the next annual general meeting of the Company, at which the Director may be re-elected.
- 47.3 The Company in general meeting may appoint a director.
- 47.4 A person is eligible for election as a director at a general meeting only if:
- 47.4.1 the person is a director retiring under the next clause and notifies the Company that he or she is available for re-election; or
 - 47.4.2 the person has signed a consent to nomination and lodged it at the Company's registered office.

The Company must accept these notices and nominations up to 35 Business Days (or in the case of a meeting that shareholders requested the Directors to call, 30 Business Days) before the general meeting. The Directors may decide to accept these notices and nominations closer to the date of the general meeting.

48. Compulsory retirement

- 48.1 No Director, who is not the Managing Director, may hold office for a continuous period in excess of three years or until the third annual general meeting following the Director's appointment or election, whichever is the longer, without submitting for re-election. If no such director would be required to submit for re-election but the Listing Rules require an election of Directors to be held, the Director to retire will be the Director who has been longest in office since their last election, but, as between persons who became Directors on the same day, the one to retire will (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

48.2 A retiring Director remains in office until the end of the meeting at which the Director retires or vacates office, and will be eligible for re-election at the meeting.

49. Vacation of office

A director ceases to be a director if:

49.1 the Corporations Act so provides;

49.2 the director resigns by notice to the Company;

49.3 the Company in general meeting removes the person as a director;

49.4 the director is absent, without the consent of the Directors, from all Directors' meetings over any 6 month period;

49.5 the director becomes mentally incapable and the director's estate or property has had a personal representative or trustee appointed to administer it; or

49.6 the director automatically retires under the previous clause.

50. Alternate directors

50.1 A director may appoint an alternate for a specified period with the consent of the Directors.

50.2 The appointor may terminate the alternate's appointment at any time.

50.3 An appointment or termination is effective only if:

50.3.1 it is in writing;

50.3.2 the appointor signs it; and

50.3.3 the Company is given notice of it.

50.4 The alternate need not be a shareholder or director of the Company.

50.5 The alternate is entitled to notice of Directors' meetings.

50.6 If the appointor is not present, the alternate may:

50.6.1 attend the Directors' meeting, count in the quorum, speak, and vote in the place of the appointor;

50.6.2 exercise any other powers (except the power to appoint an alternate) that the appointor may exercise.

50.7 A person may act as an alternate for more than one director.

50.8 If the appointor ceases to be a director, the alternate cannot exercise the appointor's powers.

50.9 Where:

50.9.1 an appointor ceases to be a director; and

50.9.2 that appointor's alternate purports to do an act as a director;

that act is as valid, in relation to a person dealing with the Company in good faith and for value and without actually knowing that the appointor has ceased to be a director, as if the appointor had not ceased to be a director.

50.10 The Company may pay an alternate any remuneration the Directors decide, in reduction of the appointor's remuneration.

50.11 While acting as a director, an alternate is an officer of the Company and not the agent of the appointor.

51. Remuneration

51.1 The Company may remunerate each director as the Directors decide, but the total amount of the remuneration of non-executive directors may not exceed the amount fixed by the Company in general meeting for that purpose.

51.2 A director's remuneration may be any combination of:

51.2.1 a stated salary;

51.2.2 a fixed sum for each attendance at a Directors' meeting;

51.2.3 if a non-executive director, a share of the amount fixed under sub-clause 1 of this clause, divided among them as the Directors decide and in default equally.

51.3 A director's remuneration must not include a commission on, or percentage of, operating revenue.

51.4 A stated salary or a share of a fixed amount accrues from day to day.

51.5 The Company must also pay travelling and other expenses that a director properly incurs on the Company's business.

51.6 If a director performs extra or special services for the Company, the Company may pay to the director any special remuneration the Directors decide, in addition to the director's normal remuneration.

51.7 The Company may pay a former director, or the estate of a director who dies in office, a benefit for past services as the Directors decide. This must not exceed the amount permitted by the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules.

51.8 The Company may establish or support superannuation or similar funds for the directors, as the Directors decide.

52. Share qualification

52.1 A director need not be a shareholder of the Company.

52.2 A director, who is not a shareholder, may still attend and speak at meetings of shareholders.

53. Director's interests

53.1 Where required by the Corporations Act, a Director must give the Directors notice of any material personal interest in a matter that relates to the affairs of the Company.

- 53.2 Subject to the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, a director may:
- 53.2.1 hold an office or place of profit (except as auditor) in the Company, on any terms the Directors decide;
 - 53.2.2 hold an office or otherwise be interested in any related body corporate or other body corporate in which the Company is interested; and
 - 53.2.3 retain benefits for doing so.
- 53.3 Subject to the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules:
- 53.3.1 a director (or a Spouse, parent or child of a director, or any entity in which a director or a Spouse, parent or child of a director has an interest) may contract or make an arrangement with the Company (or a related body corporate or a body corporate in which the Company is interested) in any matter in any capacity;
 - 53.3.2 a director may sign for the Company, or attest the affixing of the common seal to, any document in respect of that contract or arrangement;
 - 53.3.3 a director may retain benefits under that contract or arrangement; and
 - 53.3.4 the Company cannot avoid that contract or arrangement because of the director's interest.
- 53.4 A Director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a Directors' meeting must not:
- 53.4.1 be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting; or
 - 53.4.2 vote on the matter,
- unless permitted to do so by the Corporations Act, in which case the Director may:
- 53.4.3 be counted in determining whether or not a quorum is present at any meeting of Directors considering that contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement;
 - 53.4.4 sign or countersign any document relating to that contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement; and
 - 53.4.5 vote in respect of, or in respect of any matter arising out of, the contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement.
- 53.5 A Director must give to the Company such information about the shares or other securities in the Company in which the Director has a relevant interest and at the times that the Secretary requires, to enable the Company to comply with any disclosure obligations it has under the Corporations Act or the Listing Rules.

Part 7 - Proceedings of Directors

54. Circulating resolutions

- 54.1 The Directors may pass a resolution without a Directors' meeting being held, if all the directors entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document. An alternate appointed by a director may sign the document instead of that director.
- 54.2 Separate copies of a document may be used for signing by directors, if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy.
- 54.3 The resolution is passed when the last director signs.
- 54.4 Passage of the resolution must be recorded in the Company's minute book.

55A Use of Technology for Holding Directors' Meetings

- 55A.1 Nothing contained in this Constitution shall be taken to prevent the use of virtual meeting technology to be used in holding of a meeting of Directors (including a meeting of a committee of Directors) where the same is permitted by law.
- 55A.2 The provisions of this Constitution in relation to the holding of meetings of Directors (including a meeting of a committee of Directors) and the giving of notices of meetings of Directors (including a meeting of a committee of Directors) and any other relevant documents to Directors shall be modified to the extent necessary to permit the use of virtual meeting technology in accordance with the provisions of law that apply to such meetings.

55. Meetings

- 55.1 The Directors may meet, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they decide.
- 55.2 A Directors' meeting may be held using any technology consented to by all the directors. The consent may be a standing one. A director may only withdraw consent within a reasonable period before the meeting.
- 55.3 If a Directors' meeting is held by telephone link-up or other contemporaneous audio or audio visual communication, a director is taken to be present unless the director states to the chairperson that the director is disconnecting his or her telephone or communication device.

56. Calling meetings

- 56.1 Any director may call a Directors' meeting.
- 56.2 On the request of any director, the company secretary must call a Directors' meeting.

57. Notice
